Current Version: 8/1/2019

Complaints, No Retaliation, No Waiver of Rights

Policy

Any individual who has a complaint concerning NYU Langone Health’s HIPAA Privacy Policies and Procedures or NYU Langone Health’s compliance with those policies and procedures may file a complaint with NYU Langone Health, the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, the New York State Department of Health, or other appropriate oversight agency.

NYU Langone Health will not intimidate, threaten, coerce, discriminate against, or retaliate against an individual for filing a complaint, assisting in an investigation, or for opposing any act or practice that the person believes in good faith is unlawful, so long as the manner of such opposition is reasonable and does not involve a Disclosure of Protected Health Information (“PHI”) in violation of HIPAA (see also Compliance Concerns: Reporting, Investigating, and Protection from Retaliation Policy).

NYU Langone Health will not require an individual to waive his or her rights granted by the HIPAA regulations as a condition to receive Treatment, Payment, enrollment in a health plan, or eligibility for benefits.

- This includes the filing of a complaint with the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services or any other enforcement agency regarding NYU Langone Health’s compliance with HIPAA or state privacy regulations.

Procedure

If an individual wishes to file a complaint with NYU Langone Health, they should be immediately directed to the appropriate Patient Relations Office (212-263-6906, main campus) the Office of Internal Audit, Compliance, and Enterprise Risk Management (“IACERM”) (212-404-4079), or the Compliance Helpline (1-866-NYU-1212 or online at <https://compliance.nyulmc.alertline.com/gcs/welcome>).

IACERM will investigate, attempt to resolve, and document the complaint and resolution of all privacy complaints in coordination with the Patient Relations Office as necessary. All formal grievances are referred to the Patient Relations Office for a coordinated investigation and response, in compliance with the Complaint and Grievance Policy.
